The Dayton Kids Corridor Alliance

Member Benefits

Mission: to maintain a collaborative program and marketing venture that will enhance and further the awareness of children’s activities available to the general public within the Greater Dayton area.

What is The Dayton Kids Corridor Alliance?

The Dayton Kids Corridor Alliance is a group of organizations located in the Greater Dayton area whose mission, in whole or part, is to provide nonsectarian recreational and educational programming for youth ages 5 to 18. Members of The Dayton Kids Corridor Alliance work together to focus attention on the many opportunities for youth and their families in the Greater Dayton area. Through a variety of collaborative promotions and programming activities, members create greater community awareness of the vast choice of activities available for local children, families and out-of-town visitors.

Who Can Join?

Program Providers: Organizations are eligible for voting membership if they are located in the Greater Dayton area, provide programs and activities for youth ages 5 to 18 that are available to the general public, and are nonsectarian and nonpartisan. Program Provider Members agree to support the overall efforts of the alliance and pay annual dues.

Support Providers: Organizations interested in supporting the efforts of The Dayton Kids Corridor Alliance and that are nonsectarian and nonpartisan are eligible for non-voting membership at the discretion of the Program Providers. Support Provider Members pay annual dues.
